Once again we find ourselves in the over-amped micro-environment of New York City, with the Nazis up against a tribe of monkeys, but in Kung Pow 2: Tongue of Fury, we find that the monkeys have a few tricks up their sleeves. While the plot isn't what you'd call exciting, the film does feature a lot of great action sequences, some funny moments, and just enough humor to make it a very entertaining experience. Even after all of these years, Kung Pow 2 still has a lot of heart. Kung Pow 2: Tongue of Fury is a side-scrolling beat'em-up video game developed by Acclaim Entertainment and released in 1996 for the PlayStation and Sega Saturn. It is the sequel to the 1985 film Kung Pow: Shrinkage Mojo, and was released around the same time as Soap with No Soul and Daredevil: Devil by Night.
